Numb. 47.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday, December 2, to Saturday, December 9, 1732.

The Continuation of our Laſt.

CHRISTIANITY will be extended by the Execution of this Deſign; ſince the good Diſcipline eſtabliſhed by the Society will reform the Manners of thoſe miſerable Objects, who ſhall be by them ſubſiſted; and the Example of a whole Colony, who ſhall behave in a juſt, moral, and religious Manner, will contribute greatly towards the Converſion of the Indians, and taking off the Prejudices received from the profligate Lives of ſuch who have ſcarce any Thing of Chriſtian but the Name.

The Truſtees in their general Meetings will conſider of the moſt prudent Methods for effectually eſtabliſhing a regular Colony; and that it may be done is demonſtrable. Under what Difficulties was Virginia planted; The Coaſt and Climate then unknown, the Indians numerous, & at Enmity with the firſt Planters, who were forced to fetch all Proviſions from England; yet it is grown a mighty Province, and the Revenue receives 100,000 l. for Duties upon the Goods that they ſend yearly Home. Within this 50 Years Pennſylvania was as much a Foreſt as Georgia is now; and in theſe few Years, by the wiſe Oeconomy of William Penn, and thoſe who aſſiſted him, it now gives Food to 80,000 Inhabitants, and can boaſt of as fine a City as moſt in Europe.

This new Colony is more likely to ſucceed than either of the former were, ſince Carolina abounds with Proviſions, the Climate is known, and there are Men to inſtruct in the Seaſons & Nature of cultivating the Soil. There are but few Indian Families within 400 miles, & thoſe in perfect Amity with the Engliſh; Port-Royal, the ſtation of his Majeſty's Ships, is within 30 and Charleſtown, a great Mart, is within 120 miles. If the Colony is attacked, it may be relieved by Sea from Port-Royal, or the Bahamas; and the Militia of South-Carolina is ready to ſupport it by Land.

For the continuing the Relief which is now given, there will be Lands reſerved in the Colony; and the Benefits ariſing from them is to go to the carrying on of the Truſt. So that at the ſame Time the Money by being laid out preſerves the Lives of the poor, and makes a comfortable Proviſion for thoſe whoſe Expences are by it defrayed; their Labour in improving their own Lands will make the adjoining reſerved Lands valuable, and the Rents of thoſe reſerved Lands will be a perpetual Fund for the relieving more poor People. So that inſtead of laying out the Money upon Lands, with the Income thereof to ſupport the poor, this is laying out Money upon the Poor, and by relieving thoſe who are now unfortunate, raiſes a Fund for the perpetual Relief of thoſe who ſhall be ſo hereafter.

There is an Occaſion now offered for every one to help forward this Deſign, the ſmalleſt Benefaction will be received and applied with the utmoſt Care; every little will do ſomething, and a great Number of ſmall Benefactions will amount to a ſum capable of doing a great deal of Good.

If any Perſon, moved with the Calamities of the Unfortunate, ſhall be inclined to contribute towards their Relief, by encouraging this Deſign, they are deſired to pay their Benefactions into the Bank of England, on Account of the Truſtees for eſtabliſhing the Colony of Georgia in America, or elſe to any of the Truſtees, who are as follows, viz. The Rt. Hon. the Lord Viſc. Percival, the Rt. Hon. the Ld. Carpenter, the Hon. Edw. Digby, Eſq; James Oglethorp, George Heathcote, Robert Moor, Robert Hucks, John Laroche, James Vernon, Thomas Tower, Francis Eyles, William Sloper, William Belitha, Rogers Holland, Eſqrs. The Rev. Mr. Stephen Hales, B. D. the Rev. Mr. John Burton, Rich. Bundy, Arthur Bedford, Samuel Smith. Adam Anderſon, and Thomas Coram, Gents.

LONDON, July 22.

On Thurſday laſt the Truſtees for eſtabliſhing the Colony of Georgia in America, held their firſt regular Meeting. Their Charter was read, as alſo a Certificate from the Lord Chief Baron of his Majeſty's Exchequer, by which it appeared that the Rt. Hon. the Ld. Viſc. Percival had qualified himſelf as Preſident, & taken the Oath for the faithful Administration of his Trust before his Lordship. Then the President administred the Oath for the faithful Administration of their Trust, to the several Trustees present.

the

The Trustees ordered a common Seal to be made, with the following Devices; on one Face two Figures of Rivers, resting upon Urns, representing the Alatamaha and Savanah the Boundaries of Georgia, and between them the Genius of the Colony, seated with the Cap of Liberty on her Head, a Spear in one Hand, & a Cornucopia in the other, with this Motto, Colonia Georgia Aug. The Reverse is to be Silk Worms, some beginning, some having finished their Web; with this Motto, Non sibi sed alius.

Several of the Trustees produced Letters from divers Noblemen and Gentlemen, expressing their desire to assist in carrying on of this work. It was ordered that the Thanks of the Trustees should be returned to them, and that Commissions should be issued to each of them, for collecting Benefactions, pursuant to the Powers granted by the Charter, so soon as the Seal shall be ready to fix thereunto.

Mr Purry, Leader, Mr. Bingio, Minister, & the Elders of the Swiss Protestants, who are going to establish a Town on the River Savanah, attended the Trustees in Behalf of their Congregation, returned them Thanks for their Protection, and desired a Continuance of it. The Trustees ordered a Library of Books to be given to the Minister, for the Use of him and his Successors; and a handsome Sum of Money was raised by the Contributions of some of the Trustees then present, in order to be put into the Hands of the Leaders and Elders of the Congregation, for providing Refreshments for the Sick in their Passage, and on their first Establishment.

A Committee was appointed to abstract the Charter, and digest the Abstract under proper Heads, of the Money granted, the Injunctions, and Restrictions, that the Trustees might the better know, and be better able to comply punctually with the Charter. And then they adjourned to Thursday following.

Sept. 22. On Thursday last the Ld. Carpenter sate for the first Time, as one of the Trustees for Georgia in America, and after taking the Oaths, was chosen President in the Absence of the Ld. Vise. Percival. Sir Gilbert Heathcote acquainted the Court of Directors of the Bank, with his Majesty's having granted a Charity, for relieving necessitous people, by establishing of the aforesaid Colony, & after shewing the great Charity of the Undertaking, and the future Benefit arising to England, by the strengthening all the American Colonies, and increasing our Trade and Navigation, and raising Raw-Silk, for which upwards of 200,000 l. a Year is paid to Piedmont; he himself gave a very handsome Benefaction to the Design, and was followed by the Directors then present.

The sum given by Sir Gilbert Heathcote Yesterday, towards establishing the Colony of Georgia, was 20 Guineas, and the Directors 10 Guineas each, and other Subscriptions are expected to be promoted by Sir Eyles among the South S. Directors; and, Sir Matthew Decker among the Directors of the East-India Company; and 'tis not doubted but the Turkey, Russia, and trading Companies and Societies, and private Persons, will follow their Example.

The Lords of the Admiralty have been pleased to appoint the Hon. Mr. Boscawen, Son to the Rt. Hon. the Lord Vise. Falmouth, to be Lieutenant on board his Majesty's Ship the Hector.

By the Amelia arrived at Bristol we hear, that in her Passage she fell in with 6 Galleons, homeward bound to Cadiz, in the Lat. of 40, who mann'd their Boat, and under pretence of searching for Logwood detained the said Ship several Hours; but finding nothing on board to make her a Prize, wished her a good Voyage and discharged her.

The Paris Gazette by the French Mail arrived this Day, has the following Article from Petersbourg, of the 6th Instant, N.S. There is an Account by the Last Letters from General Levaschaw, at Derbent, that all the Provinces of Persia had sent their Deputies to Ispahan, to congratulate the Sophi upon the Resolution he has taken, not to execute the last Treaty concluded with the Grand Signior, and to assure him, that they would grant him all the necessary Succours to retake the Towns, which the Situation of his Affairs had obliged him to yield to his Highness: That each Province had sent him a State of the Troops they are able to furnish, with an offer to pay and maintain them for 2 Years; that the Sophi had actually an Army of 50,000 Men in Georgia, another of 60,000 Men which had made themselves Masters of the Passages, by which the Turks entered the Country during the preceding War; and a Third Army with which the Sophy himself did make the Seige of Errivan; but those letters do not mention the taking of that Place as it has been written from Constantinople.

'Tis advised from Oosterhoud near Breda, that all was in Motion in those Parts, upon Account of the Dutch Camp to be formed the 5th of next Month in the Neighbourhood of that Town, and which will be the most magnificent that has been seen these many Years, and will continue two Months. Abundance of the Nobility from France, England, and Germany, are expected there; and even 'tis said, that the King of Prussia will come incognito to see the same.

By the Holland Mail which arrived Yesterday, we learn----From Berlin of the 2d Instant, N.S. That the Margravine of Bareith, late Princess Royal of Prussia, was delivered of a Princess; and, that the Convention for the Marriage Presents between the Prince Royal, and the Princess of Bevern, and between the Princess Charlotta, third Daughter of his Prussian Majesty, and the Hereditary Prince of Bevern was settled, and those Marriages will soon take place.

Yesterday about 1 o' Clock in the Afternoon, came Advice, that the Lord Torrington with the Yatchts lay at Anchor at Gravesend, the Wind being full against them, and having blown so very hard, the Katherine Yatcht in endeavouring to turn down lost her Mast, and received such other Damage, that she was forced to return back to the King's Dock, at Deptford, to refit, where she now lyes; the Carolina likewise met with much Damage by Colliers running on board her.

Cork, Aug. 4. This being the first of Aug. and the Shoemakers of our City being very loyal, made a handsome Appearance on that Occasion: They had a Company of Horse, well mounted, in leather Armour, and a Company of Foot in Buff Coats, a Company of small Boys with Size Sticks in their Hands, accompanied with Crispin and Crispianus, with Kettle Drums, Trumpets and Hautboys, and the Guns firing from the Brigadier's Garrison, which concluded the Day.

On Thursday last Richard Wilson (who had lain a considerable Time under Sentence of Death for Burglary) was executed here. During his Confinement in Prison, especially the latter part of it, he was very serious and Penitent, and behaved himself with much Patience and Resignation. At the Place of Execution he warned the Spectators against Drunkenness, profane Swearing, &c. which he acknowledged he had been too much accustomed to, and which had led him on to the commission of the Fact for which he was going to suffer: And altho he confessed his Guilt, and the Justice of his Sentence, yet he utterly denied several things with which he had been charged. And whereas it had been reported that he was a Roman Catholick, he openly declared his Abhorrence thereof, and professed that he was born and bred a Protestant, according to the Doctrine and Worship of the Church of England, and departed in that Faith. He heartily forgave all the World, and in a Judgment of Charity, died a good Penitent.

A considerable Number of Negroes came off afterwards in Canoes, and endeavoured to get on board, but were beat off, and the Mate afterwards recovered the Slaves which had escaped. About the same time the Slaves on board a Guinea-man belonging to Bristol, rose and destroyed the whole Crew, cutting off the Captain's Head, Legs and Arms.
